

XM satellite radio is not the problem...and it should not be messed with...everyone should have XM its great...a lot better then the normal radio and it should be allowed to advance itself